

D. LANGUAGE FOCUS

After you learn about the use of computer in the digital age. Now let us try to understand the formula before we try to write the use of computer more specifically to certain jobs.

We can write the function of computer by using the Formula of SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE as follow:

Type of Sentence	Formula	Example
Positive	Subject (He, She, It) + Verb {+ s/+ es} + Object	Lina goes to mall each month It rains everyday
	Subject (I, We, You They) + Verb 1 + Object	You do exercise
Negative	Subject (He, She, It) + does not (doesn't) + Verb 1 + Object	He does not walk to school every day.
	Subject (He, She, It) + do not (don't) + Verb 1 + Object
Interrogative Yes/ No Question	Does+ Subject (He, She It) + Verb+?	Does Lina love singing? Answer: Yes, she does. No, she does not (doesn't).
	Do+ Subject (I, We, You, They) + Verb 1 + ?	Do we have English class on Friday? Yes, we do. No, we do not (don't).
With question words: What Who Where When Whom Why How	Question Words+ does/do + Subject + verb 1+ ?	Why do they go to the bank? Where does Lina work? When does the move begin?

Simple present tense can also be used to describe:

1. General Truth
2. Habits
3. Permanent Situations
4. Short Actions Now

For Example:

1. Architect uses computer to design buildings.
2. He plays tennis every Friday.
3. I live in London.
4. He takes the ball and scores a goal!